OBJECTIVE

To get a really good fake job writing jokes for a website used to teach Django to Python developers. I just think it would be so cool to have a job like that. I know I could do a really good job with it, so please, please hire me.

EXPERIENCE

COUCH SITTER

(2/30/1908 - present)
Sat on couches thinking up funny jokes and giggling. I made up so many really funny jokes and told them to myself and laughed and giggled. It was fun and funny and super funacious too. I hope to do more of it on my free time.
